Dedication

Because she and Co-Lin work and walk hand in hand . . . we, the staff of the 1960 Trillium in sincere appreciation, love, respect, and gratitude for her years of sacrificial service, do dedicate this book to . . .

MISS LULA STEVENS

Miss Lula Stevens

This Is Our College . . .

. . . As We See It

A place which comes to be a life, full and encompassing. A life of joy — the joy of victory, of friendship, of satisfaction. A life of struggle — the struggle for grades, for popularity, for honor. A life of excitement — over the first football victory, over the first college date, over the Who's Who nomination, over the beauty pageant, over the band trip.

The crowded bookstores, the nightly study in the library, the determination to make Phi Theta Kappa, and the dream of graduation — all go into our search for learning.

The important highlights — the game with Southwest, with Hinds, Freshman Day, The Christmas Pageant, The Operetta, Religious Emphasis Week, Stunt Night, Thanksgiving — and the daily routine — 7:50 classes, cafeteria lines, book store dates at 9:15 — mingle to make the college for us. College becomes a reality as alive as the students themselves.

The college is sharp memories of happiness, of love, of spirit which return to each of us as we recall Copiah-Lincoln. As a ninth grade high school student, as a first semester freshman, or a graduating sophomore, you have found as part of you, this — OUR COLLEGE.

ADVERTISEMENTS

The cheerleaders arouse the student body and the football team to action by yelling "Fight! Fight! Fight!" at the first pep rally of the year which was held in the auditorium of the college.

The cheerleaders become so absorbed in the game that they forget to yell.

The first football game of the year is now history. Only a few band members, Colettes, and spectators remain. The Co-Lin Wolves have just defeated the Southwest Bears by a score of 36 to 0.

and Fellowship

The "Combo," consisting of Chippy Barton, Kelly Stegall, Tommy Bradshaw, David Lawless, Gene Spence, Harry Franklin, and Murry Pevey furnished the music for the dancers.

Miss Brumfield acts as "Mistress of Ceremonies" for the first party of the year which was held on the tennis court.

The first "get acquainted" party of the year always attracts a large crowd of students. Glen Vaughn, Nancy Conn, Nelson Wheeler, Marilyn Cooke and others relax and have fun.

"Gunsmoke" commands his "Dogs" to hail the Sophomores as lords and masters of Freshman Day.

Freshman Day —

Robert Ogden and other lowly freshmen entertain a group in front of the bookstore by dancing the hula.

From "Dogs" to "Rulers"

King Glen Mullins of McCall Creek poses for the TRILLIUM photographer.

The Queen of Freshman Day, Coleen King of Meadville, stands between her friends, Mary Elizabeth Pigott and Linda Saxon.

Homecoming Activity —

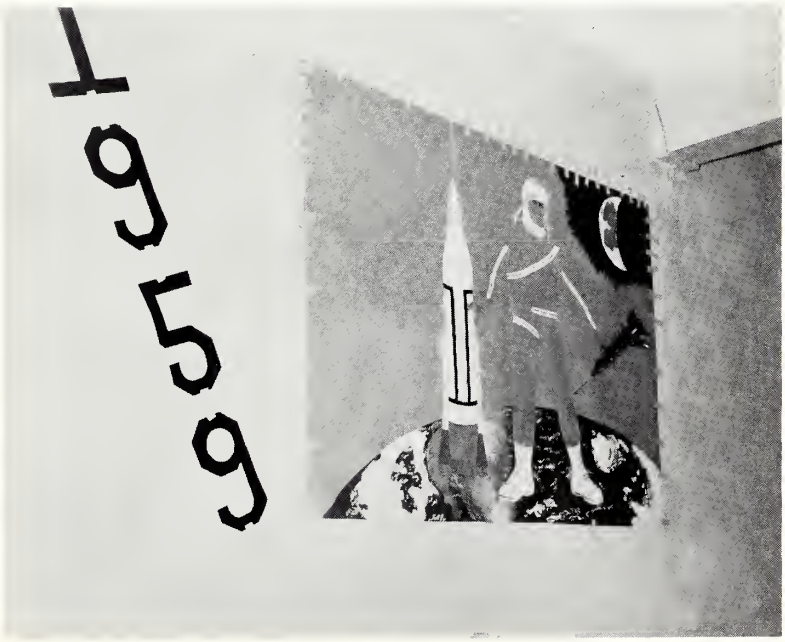
Alumni president, Mrs. Ruby Larkin of Brookhaven, is among the first to register for Homecoming. Looking on are President Fortenberry, J. M. Lewis, president-elect of the Alumni Association, and Letha Sauls, a '60 sophomore.

Queen Beverly King of Meadville, is assisted from her automobile by her escort Larry Dickerson, also of Meadville, just prior to her coronation.

Alums, Decorations, A Coronation

A reception was held in the lobby of the Freshman Women's dormitory immediately after the program. Alumni and guests are seen around the punch bowl.

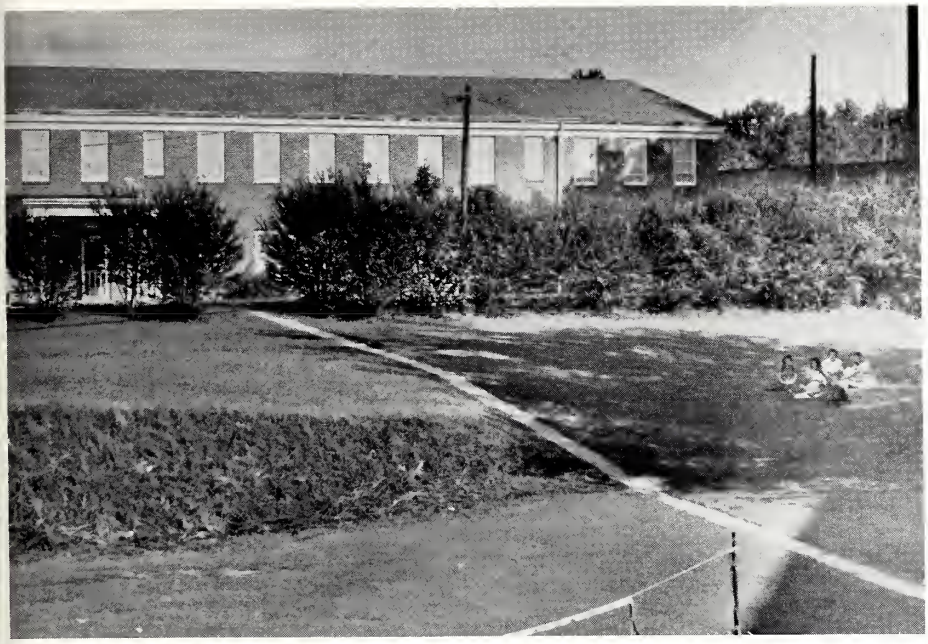
To welcome the Alums, the sophomores decorated the dining hall with artistic murals which depicted outstanding historical events of 1929, 1939, 1949, and 1959. Classes of these four years were honored at this Homecoming.



Buildings . . .

The sophomore girls were delighted upon their return to find a completely new dormitory: tile baths, tile floors, venetian blinds, roomy closets with sliding doors, and new furniture; but the most wonderful thing of all, a fully furnished lobby complete with television!

Exterior and Interior . . .



Sophomore girls are now proud to display their stuffed animals in their attractive rooms.

Dramatic Action and Entertainment . . .

Assemblies can be fun . . . sometimes! Murry Pevey, Jerry Butler, Katie Crawford, and Becky Henry star in the Dramatics Club production "Which Is the Way to Boston?"

A Familiarity . . .

A Part of You —
This — Our College.

COPIAH-LINCOLN JUNIOR COLLEGE

WESSON, MISSISSIPPI

F. M. FORTENBERRY
President

1960

To the Sophomore Class of 1960

May I take this opportunity to express my thanks and appreciation to each member of this class. During your years at Copiah-Lincoln every member of your class has made some contribution to the college. Many of you have found places of leadership in student affairs, athletics, and other campus activities, and through these have made your influence felt by the entire student body.

As you leave us this year, it is our wish for you that each will find his or her place of leadership and service in the senior college of your choice, or in your chosen profession or occupation. If you will always remember that service to your community, your church, and your fellow men is the most rewarding life you can live, then each of you will succeed, and by your success, we at Copiah-Lincoln will have succeeded.

May God's richest blessings go with each of you, and may He watch over and lead you as you lend unselfish service to Him and your fellow man.

Very sincerely,

F. M. Fortenberry

Y-Teens is the National Young Women's Christian Association working with high school girls. The blue triangle — symbolizing purity of "body, mind, and spirit" — has been a great challenge to high school girls through the years. The Co-Lin Y-Teen Club has made a fine contribution on the campus, to the community, and to the state.

Hi-Y

The purpose of the Hi-Y is to help high school boys explore and achieve for themselves and others those attitudes and habits which build high standards of Christian character and Christian citizenship.
